The American Civil War is the bloodiest conflict in which the United States has ever engaged. More than 600,000 American soldiers lost their lives in four years at a time when the total U.S. was around 34,000,000.

Guest Speakers: Brothers, Jim and George Anderson
portrayed by Civil War reenactors,
James Richardson and Dennis Bernitt

The brothers arrive at the Depot to take the train home at the end of the Civil War. They happen to meet and talk about their battles- how they survived- and now returning home, as soldiers who fought on opposite sides.

Admission and light refreshments are free (donations appreciated!). Tour the oldest still standing train station in NYS, which was saved from being demolished and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
